SPEAKING THE LANGUAGE

very sport has a language of its own and soccer is no different.

Terms like "Side-on" or "Schemer" have a specific meaning within the game that first year coaches may not be familiar with. The next few pages will list just about every soccer term a coach needs to know in the world of soccer.

Here are a few to get you started.

Yellow Card: A cautionary measure used by the referee to warn a player not to repeat an offense. A second yellow card in a match results in a red card.

Formation: Often used to describe the number of players positioned by a team in the different areas of the field of play. Example 4-3-3

USYS: United States Youth Soccer.

Term	Explanation
The 6	An abbreviation referring to the goal area.
6-stud cleats	Screw-in cleats
The 18	An abbreviation referring to the penalty area.
50/50 ball	A loose ball contested by a player from each team and which may be won by either one of them (a frequent cause of injury as players collide in attempting to be first to the ball).
Abandon the game	Occasionally the referee will stop the game with no chance of resuming it; in that case, the game is said to have been abandoned.
Advantage	A discretionary judgement which allows an official to permit play to continue rather than stopping play to administer a foul. The is because the foul did not put the offended team at a disadvantage, or the foul, should it have been called, may take away a favorable opportunity for the offended team.
Assist	One player passes the ball to a second player, who scores as a result of the pass.
Assistant referee	One of two assistants to the center referee. Their duties include: Calling the ball out of play, determining the team that is awarded a corner kick, goal kick or throw-in, calling offside, notifying the referee of a pending situation, monitoring for misconduct and any duty that the referee deems necessary. Formerly called "linesman".
Attacking half	Generally considered the offensive half. The half of the field where one particular team is trying to score.
Attacking third	Some coaches prefer to divide the fields into thirds in setting tactical goals for their team. The attacking third is the third of the field where one particular team is trying to score. The other two thirds are called the defensive third and middle third.
Away	Instruction issued by a goalkeeper to teammates to tell them to clear the ball without attempting to control it.
Back	1. Movement by players towards their own goal; 2. Communication to a teammate, who is carrying the ball, for a pass back; 3. Communication to a teammate letting him know that he has support behind him; 4. Another name for fullback .

Boots	Soccer shoes
Box	The penalty area.
Breakaway	An attacker who gets behind all field defenders, with possession of the ball, is said to have a breakaway.
Captain	One player who has been designated by the coach to be the one person who can communicate with the referee, while on the field. While FIFA doesn't give captains an official designation, youth soccer can utilize two or three captains. A captain is designated with a distinctive arm band.
Caught square	When two or more defenders have been beaten by a through ball because they were positioned square to one another (in other words, in a line across the field parallel to the goal line) because one or more failed to drop off and provide support, they are said to have been "caught square".

Caught square	When two or more defenders have been beaten by a through ball because they were positioned square to one another (in other words, in a line across the field parallel to the goal line) because one or more failed to drop off and provide support , they are said to have been "caught square".
Caution	When the referee shows a yellow card to a player and records that player's name because of misconduct, he is said to have "cautioned" the player.
Center circle	A circle of 10 yard (9.15 meter) radius, drawn with the center mark as its center.
Center mark	The mark that is placed on the half-line, designating the midway point on the line.
Channel	To 'channel' an opponent is to steer him or her into a more predictable, easily defended direction.
Charging	The initiation of contact with an opposing player. Not all charges are illegal.
Check away	To move away from a teammate who has the ball; frequently used before checking back to the ball in order to create space and confuse a defender.
Check to	An offensive player runs toward the ball carrier, usually to call for a pass; frequently used immediately after the player has checked away from the ball in order to create space and confuse the defenders.
Clear	A term used by defenders to send the ball rapidly upfield. This term is yelled out by defenders to alert the defender with the ball that he has impending pressure.
Clearance	Usually a long, flighted ball used by defenders to clear the ball upfield.
Cleats	Specialty footwear worn by soccer players. So called for the studs or cleats on the soles of the shoes. These are frequently permanently molded as part of the sole but may also be removable .
Close down	The technique whereby a defender gets as close as possible to an attacker, usually the ball-carrier, without letting the attacker get past.
Compress the field	As defenders push out toward the ball, thereby reducing the area in which attacking forwards can move without being in an offside position , they are said to "compress the field".
Corner arc	The quarter-circle marking, with a radius of one yard, located at each of the four corners defining the field of play.
Corner flag	Flagposts positioned at each of the four corners defining the field of play.
Corner kick	A method of restart, awarded to the attacking team when the ball, having last been touched by the defending team, crosses the goal line without entering the goal.
Cover	1. A defender who is supporting a teammate facing the attacking player on the ball is said to be providing cover; 2. A defender moving into such a position will call "Cover!" to let his or her teammate know of the presence of support.
Cross	The term used to describe a ball that has been kicked or thrown (from a throw-in) from near the touch line towards the goal.
Crossbar	The structure of the goal that connects the two upright goalposts.
Cut	A subtle adjustment made when carrying the ball. The ball carrier moves the ball in a different direction to avoid being tackled. Similar to a chop, but t he action is not as forceful.
D	Abbreviation referring to the penalty arc .
Dead ball situation	Any situation when the ball in being put back into play by the attacking team, especially a direct or indirect free kick or a corner kick .

Defensive third	Some coaches prefer to divide the fields into thirds in setting tactical goals for their team. The defensive third is the third of the field where one particular team is defending their own goal. The other two thirds are called the attacking third and middle third.
Deflection	1. An uncontrolled rebound off a player or the referee. 2. A save attempt by a goalkeeper (usually with the hands) where the ball rebounds away (see parry).
Diagonal	Any action (pass, kick or run) that moves corner-to-corner with respect to the field of play. The player doesn't have to use all the space between the corners, which are simply a reference to a diagonal.
Direct free kick	A method of restarting play, where the player taking the kick may shoot the ball directly into the net. Indicated by the referee when he points in the direction of the kick.
Direct play	A tactical system in which a team attempts to play the ball forward into the attacking third as soon as possible after recovering possession, frequently by playing long balls over the top. Often contrasted with possession play.
Dissent	Expressing disagreement by word or action with any decision of the referee.
Dive	An exaggeration of the effect of contact, including falling to the ground, intended to influence the referee to award a free kick in favor of the player's team. This is considered unsporting behavior, possibly punishable by yellow card. Also a technique used by goal keepers in an attempt to stop a shot on goal.
Dive in	To attempt to tackle an opponent without first slowing one's own or the opponent's forward progress, thereby making it easy for the opponent to beat the defender with a dribbling move.
Draw	Also called a tie. When both teams score an equal number of goals, including no goals scored by either team.
Dribble	The practice of controlling the ball with the feet while moving on the field of play.
Drive	Typically a low, hard shot on goal, taken with the instep .
Drop ball	A method of restart in which the referee 'drops' the ball to the ground. The players may not kick the ball until the ball touches the ground.
Drop kick	A punting method the goal keeper uses where he drops the ball to the ground, then punts the ball just after it hits the ground.
Drop off	To move farther away from one's mark. Issued as an instruction to a player, from the coach or another player.
Drop pass	A player passes the ball, behind himself, to a teammate or leaves the ball for a teammate.
Dummy	To pretend to be about to receive the ball, but allow the ball to travel past oneself, in order to deceive the opponent.
Dummy run	A run by a teammate of the player with the ball, intended to draw one or more defenders away from the area under attack.
Encroachment	Being within 10 yards of the ball when a free kick, corner kick, goal kick or penalty kick is being taken by an opponent.
Fake	The act of a ball carrier 'faking' an action, to elicit a response from a defender, then the ball carrier performs another mover. Example- faking a shot, then passing the ball off to a teammate.
Far post	The goalpost that is farthest from the ball.
Feint	A maneuver performed by a ball carrier that is intended to get the defender to react, allowing the ball carrier to move the ball the other way. Any of the step-overs and moves created by famous players constitute feints.
